-Wein is best for an evening talk with your friends or for your Sunday dinner. And the opulent Black Burgundy is surely a wine for special events. We advise you to put the red wines into a decanter before enjoying them.

For trendsetters and curious people we offer our Piwi Box: „Piwi“ is the abbreviation of the German term for funghi resistant breedings. They save us a lot of spraying and therefore are ideal varieties for organic viticulture. So you find two bottles each of three wines with new names. The Bronner is similar to White Burgundy and adapts to many meals. Sauvignier gris is the German answer to Pinot Grigio and makes brilliant wines. Regent is a deep red variety. The cuvée with Black Burgundy proved to be a very good idea. Thus we gained a nice southern type wine.

Finally here is our top offer: The „Stout Box“: Almost every year we are lucky to harvest rich and very sweet grapes that develop a good amount of alcohol. You find three of these very noble and opulent wines in this „Stout Box“: The Spätburgunder, Black Burgundy suits well to fine beef. The brilliant Sauvignier gris goes along with excellent fish, and the Grey Burgundy needs a cheese dessert. And all three of them are fine for a family anniversary.

You can of course make your own selection of your favourite wines.

Turning to organic wines:

Karl-Friedrich spent his apprenticeship as vintner in one of the pioneer wine estates producing organic grapes. In 2003 we joined the organic wine growing advisory service and over the next three years Karl-Friedrich began testing organic spraying. After that, our estate was converted into organic viticulture and since 2008 we have been certified as EU organic estate.

We are certified by DE-022-Eco-Inspection Body.
